There is also evidence of enjoyment for twelve years prior to 1872-3. As such the claim for recognition is recommended both by the Excise Commr and the Dy Commr. But as there is no shop in the village, rule 13 of the rules of 2nd Augt 1901 has been applied to this case.

As in other cases kept back in the pro shelf, pending the revision of the rules on the subject, this claim appears to be one to await the decision of Govt in that connection. May this case be kept by in pro along with the files of a similar nature? Submd for orders.

OFFICE OF THE EXCISE COMMISSIONER IN MYSORE.

Bangalore, dated.....

FROM

Excise Commissioner in Mysore.

To

Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,
General and Revenue Departments.

Sir,

I am submitting herewith the records of enquiry relating to the Inamdar's claim to the Excise Revenue from toddy of Karvemaya Kolvadi village in the Closepet Sub-Taluk, Bangalore District, I have the honour to state that the village in question was granted as Umbli Inam by His Highness the late Maharaja Sri Krishnaraj Wadaiyar Bahadur III on the New 1819 by a deed of gift to one Mr. Krishna Ura of Channapatna. The deed conferred on the grantee, privilege to enjoy all items of Revenue without single exception. Though there is no specific mention of Shendi or Sachelpairu in the feonad the item of Bajebab is considered a copy of the deed filed in the records.

2. In the Inam Settlement register of this village which is also filed in the record, it is expressly stated that the item of Sayer and abkari are conceded to the Inamdar.

3. As regards the enjoyment of the Revenue in question, it is evident from the accompanying copy of the Bangalore District Inam Commissioner's docket No. 580, dated the 3rd February 1910 and also from the Jamabandi forwards and other papers filed in the records that there has been an uninterrupted enjoyment of the Revenue in question by the Inamdar late Kempamanjammani averoo and after her death the village passed temporarily into the hands of the Palace Department to make the management of her successor in title.

Commissioner's opinion that the Inamdar is entitled to the Revenue in question under rule 2, 5 and 13 of the Inamdars' toddy Rules of 1901 as there is no current working shop in the village.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

for Excise Commissioner.

Copy of docket No. 580 dated 3/5th February 1913 from the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District to the Excise Commissioner in Mysore.

His docket No.751 dated 15th July 1912, in re the claim to the Excise Revenue from toddy of the Inamdar of Sarvamanya Talavadi village Closepet Sub-Taluk.

In forwarding herewith, the file of records connected with the enquiry into the claim referred to in the above, has the honor to state that the Inamdar, in support of enjoyment of the toddy revenue of the village prior to 1892-'93, has produced Jamabandi Ghoshwar for 1891-'92 signed by the Jambandi Officer and a patti showing the particulars of date trees existing in the village and also revenue derived from the said source for five years from 1883-'84 to 1887-'88. The latter is one prepared on 28-8-1888 and signed by the Shanbhogue of the village.

Reference having been made for the verification of the said patti with the accounts available in the Taluk Cutcherry, copies of Mutchalika executed by the then Ezardars agreeing to take up the lease of the date trees of the village under reference for the above said five years are received. It is found that the amounts specified in these mutchalikas as agreed upon to be paid for the leases correspond with those entered in the patti in question against the respective years. The documents presented may, therefore be accepted as sufficient evidence in support of the Inamdar's enjoyment of the toddy revenue. Copy of beriz patti submitted by the Deputy Amildar of the Closepet Sub-Taluk is also enclosed.
